CONFIDENTIALITY OF MEDICAL INFORMATION

PG-4.7

TPHS shall strive to protect the privacy of employees' medical information to the greatest extent possible.

Sec. 1. "MEDICAL INFORMATION" DEFINED

"Medical information" is any information, data, or documentation relating to an employee's mental or physical condition. The term includes, but is not limited to:

1. Oral, written, or digital information concerning an employee's mental or physical condition;
2. Medical records;
3. Dental records;
4. Disability records;
5. Workers' compensation records;
6. Medical leave records;
7. Genetic information;
8. Health insurance information; and/or
9. Information concerning visits or payments to any health care professional, hospital, emergency room, or other type of short- or long-term health care facility.

Sec. 2. CONFIDENTIALITY OF RECORDS

Any medical information concerning employees will be maintained in separate, confidential medical files apart from regular personnel records. Only employees authorized by the Superintendent may access such files.

Employees are hereby notified that medical information concerning employees is absolutely confidential under state and federal laws and may not be discussed at any time with any person under any circumstances, unless:

1. An employee needs to do so in order to carry out his or her job duties, or
2. The person discussing the information is talking or otherwise communicating with the subject of the information at that person's invitation.

If an employee is concerned about a possible medical condition on the part of another employee, the employee must not discuss such concern with anyone other than his or her Principal or immediate supervisor.

Sec. 3. POLICY VIOLATIONS

Any employee who is found to have discussed medical information concerning another employee with anyone else in violation of this policy, or who is found to have released such information without authorization, will be subject to severe disciplinary action, up to and possibly including
