“Technological equipment” means hardware, a device, or equipment necessary for (i) instructional use in the classroom, including to gain access to or enhance the use of electronic instructional materials; or (ii) professional use by a classroom teacher.

Tex. Educ. Code § 31.002(4).

Sec. 2. LOCAL SELECTION

a) Selection Team

TPHS shall establish a team, as needed, to select instructional materials and technological equipment to be purchased with TPHS’s instructional materials allotment. The team shall make selections based upon TPHS’s instructional needs and in accordance with administrative regulations.

The instructional materials allotment team shall ensure that selected materials, in combination with any other materials in use by TPHS, allow TPHS to certify that all students are provided with instructional materials that cover the essential knowledge and skills, as required by law.

The Board shall select instructional materials in an open meeting as required by the Texas Open Meetings Act, including public notice.

19 Tex. Admin. Code § 66.104(a).

i. Open Education Resource Instructional Materials

In selecting material each year, TPHS may consider, but cannot be required to, adopt or use open education resource instructional materials.

Tex. Educ. Code § 31.073(a).

TPHS may adopt open education resource instructional materials at any time. However, TPHS may only adopt or otherwise use an open education resource instructional material that is not included on the list of rejected instructional materials maintained by the State Board of Education under Texas Education Code § 31.022(a).

Tex. Educ. Code 37.073(b)-(c).

ii. Special Education

Adopted instructional materials shall be supplied to a student in special education classes as appropriate to the level of the student’s ability and without regard to the grade for which the instructional material is adopted or the grade in which the student is enrolled.

19 Texas Admin. Code. § 66.104(c).

b) Certification of Provision of Instructional Materials

TPHS shall annually certify to the State Board of Education (“SBOE”) and the Commissioner of Education that,

1. For each subject in the required curriculum under Texas Education Code § 28.002, other than physical education, and each grade level, the school:
 - a. Provides each student with instructional materials that cover all elements of the essential knowledge and skills adopted by the SBOE for that subject grade level and;
 - b. In the provision of instructional materials, protects students from obscene or harmful content as necessary for compliance with: (i) the Children’s Internet Protection Act; (ii) Texas Education Code § 28.0022; (iii) Texas Penal Code § 43.22; and (iv) any other law or regulation that protects students from obscene or harmful content; and
2. TPHS used money allocated to the school under the instructional materials and technology allotment only for purposes allowed under Texas Education Code § 31.0211.

Tex. Educ. Code § 31.1011(a).

To determine whether each student has instructional materials that cover all elements of the essential knowledge and skills, TPHS may consider:

1. Instructional materials adopted by the SBOE;
2. Instructional materials developed, purchased, or otherwise acquired by TPHS; and
3. Open education resource instructional materials and other electronic materials included in the state’s open education resource instructional materials repository.

Tex. Educ. Code § 31.1011(b).

TPHS shall annually report to the Texas Education Agency information regarding to the instructional materials used by TPHS during the previous school year, including the cost of each material, to assist the agency in ensuring compliance with Texas Education Code § 31.151(a).
